NICHOLSON SAW IT ALL

He Says the Viscaya Headed Toward Admiral Schley's Flagship.

THEN SHE TURNED AND RAN ASHORE.

Navigator of the Oregon Gives His Version of the American Naval Victory at Santiago to the Court of Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The list of witnesses called before the Schley court of inquiry Friday included Lieutenant Commander Reginald F. Nicholson, who was navigator of the Oregon during the campaign of 1898; Dr. Charles M. Devalin, passed assistant surgeon; Captain J. L. Hannum, retired, who was chief engineer on the Brooklyn during the war with Spain; Lieutenant T. F. Carter, ensign W. F. Cronan, Carpenter J. H. Warford, all of whom were on the Brooklyn; Mr. Hunley, who was chief machinist on the Texas, and Lieutenant B. W. Wells, Jr., who was Admiral Schley's flag lieutenant. It is expected that Captain Clark of the Oregon will be among the witnesses to be heard early next week.

Lieutenant Commander Nicholson of the Oregon began his recital of the story of the battle of July 3, which he had observed as the navigator of the Oregon, by saying he was on the deck of his vessel, and added: "Occupying the position I did during the day of the engagement, I necessarily saw considerable of it and the incidents of that day. The Spanish ships were seen coming out of the harbor by practically the whole crew at the same time. When the first ship started to go around the cry went up, 'There they go.' I looked toward the harbor and saw the first ship. Her bow was making a turn into the last reach of the harbor on her way out. She was followed in succession by the others. I went to my station first on the bridge, then down to the conning tower, and saw that the proper connections were made. In the meantime the signal had been sounded to general quarters, and by this time steam was coming up; all the boilers and blowers were going full tilt, and in a few minutes afterward Captain Clark came up. We turned the ship, going slowly at first the speed increasing all the time, turned ship with starboard helm and started in toward the enemy. They came out at full speed, apparently much faster than we were at this time. By the time we were straightened out well to the westward they were all ahead of us. The Iowa started in, she being to the westward of us, apparently got in closer to the enemy than we did, because we passed under her stern. A few minutes after that, on our course to the westward, we passed under the stern of the Texas, apparently still in the water. I called Captain Clark's attention to this. Of course firing commenced on both sides at the time the first ship cleared, probably 3 1/2 to 4 miles off at that point. When we crossed under the Texas' stern we saw the Iowa coming out of a course nearly parallel to a converging course with ours. I noticed her a little abaft our starboard beam. Captain Clark at the same time noticed her and called my attention to her, and told me to look out and avoid a collision. No collision was very imminent, but we did change our helm and passed on. I did not see any more of the Iowa. After the action commenced we passed the Texas and the Iowa. The only ship then ahead of us was the Brooklyn. She was well off of her accustomed position, well off to the westward. All the Spanish ships had gotten out by this time and we were pursuing them, heading for the leading ships. We noticed the Maria Teresa drop astern at less speed than at first, saw flames leaping up and out from her, which convinced us she was on fire. A few minutes after that the Oquendo appeared to be covered with smoke, and we concluded that she also was on fire, which proved to be a fact. Just about this time the Viscaya, which starboarded her helm, seemed to head off to the southward and west, toward the Brooklyn, and fall out of line. It then became evident that the Colon was pulling out of battle and running along the shore, but it was developed that she was running away and had more speed than all the other ships. The Viscaya headed toward the Brooklyn. She ran that course some time, then straightened out again, then turned inshore, and a few minutes after that ran ashore also. There is no question about the Viscaya pulling out of the Spanish line to the southward, because a short time after this Captain Clark turned around and called my attention to some objects in the water that looked like floating buoys, apparently three or four feet above the water. We thought they were nets with torpedoes between them, probably thrown out to injure the ship. I ported the helm, and before I could do anything we passed over the spot and found we were in the wake of the Viscaya." Commander Nicholson then detailed the chase of the Colon, the subsequent going ashore and the surrender.

Commander Nicholson said he recalled some signals from the Brooklyn on the day of the battle, among others one at the beginning of the battle to close up, and another at the close of the engagement saying, "Well done, Oregon."

In reply to questions from Mr. Rayner, the witness said he could not say positively that he had seen the Brooklyn make her turn, but that he had seen her change her position. He had never seen the Brooklyn and the Texas when they were closer together than a mile or a mile and a half. He also said that he did not remember any signal from the Brooklyn to the Oregon to use her 13-inch guns on the Colon.

"Did the Oregon use her 13-inch guns early in the action?" Captain Lemly asked on cross-examination. "Oh, yes," was the response. "But she stopped using them during the chase of the Colon, as that vessel was so far away that to use them would have been a waste of ammunition."

In response to another question by Captain Lemly, Commander Nicholson said: "I thought the Oregon was nearer the enemy during the chase than the Brooklyn, but the distances varied somewhat. At one time the Brooklyn had apparently turned to head off a turn of the Colon toward Cape Cruz. In reply to Mr. Hanna, the witness said he had observed the Spanish fleet as it came out of the harbor at Santiago; that they were in column and in order, three or four ships' lengths apart; that all ported their helms and turned to the westward apparently with the intention of going ashore if necessary. During the early part of the engagement he had seen none of the Spanish vessels turning toward any of the American ships, and he was sure there was no well-developed movement in that direction. The smoke was dense, and he could not be certain of all the details. The court asked a number of questions as to the positions of the ships in the blockading fleet.

Dr. Charles M. Devalin followed Nicholson and commenced Admiral Schley's conduct in the engagement. After him Captain John R. Hannum, chief engineer of the Brooklyn at that time, was called respecting the condition of the Merrimac and coaling. Assistant Engineer Carter testified as to conditions in the engine room of the Brooklyn just prior to and during the battle. He said the engines of the Brooklyn were never stopped nor reversed, and that messages were received in the engine room announcing the progress of the battle. Carter was succeeded by Ensign W. P. Cronan, his testimony covering the main issues in accordance with other witnesses for Admiral Schley.

The next witness was George H. Warford, carpenter on the Brooklyn, who also praised Schley's conduct in battle. J. L. Hunley, chief machinist on the Texas, contradicted Alfred Claxton's testimony as to the engines of the Texas being reversed or backed. Witness said he was on duty at the port engine and that the engines were slowed down but not stopped nor backed.

Lieutenant J. P. Ryan, assistant engineer on the Brooklyn, said that Schley occupied an exposed position during the battle and that his conduct was admirable.

Lieut. B. W. Wells, Jr., Schley's flag lieutenant, was the next witness, going over the whole ground. He was still on the stand when court adjourned for the day.

Cashier Disappeared.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The comptroller of the currency is in receipt of a telegram from the president of the national bank of Boyertown, Pa., that the bank has closed its doors on account of the disappearance of the cashier. James B. McDougal, national bank examiner, has been appointed temporary receiver to take charge of the bank. The comptroller has no information as to the amount of the default, if any.

Shooting Melee.

Welsh, W. Va., Oct. 18.—While Robert Hufford, a merchant, was taking a lunch in a cafe became offended at remarks made by a party of strangers and hurled a heavy glass at one of them. A fight ensued in which Hufford and Dr. C. R. McDaniel were fatally wounded and several were hurt. Hufford began the shooting when Dr. McDaniel and Deputy Sheriff Waldman tried to separate the combatants.

Not an Anarchist.

Omaha, Oct. 18.—Miss Anna Martell called at the office of the chief of police and stated that she is a sister of Ambrose Martell, arrested at Norfolk, Va., as an anarchist. Miss Martell says her brother is not an anarchist, but is insane. He disappeared from his home some time ago, since which he has not been heard from. He was once a man of considerable wealth.

BEATEN BY BOLOMEN

American Soldiers Attacked and Ten Slain on Samar Island.

TWO GUNBOATS SENT TO THE SCENE.

Reinforcements Arrived In Time to Save the Detachment From Being Annihilated—A Suspect Compelled to Swear Allegiance.

Manilla, Oct. 18.—A force of 500 bolomen attacked a detachment of 46 men of the Ninth Infantry at Bangajon on the Gandara river, island of Samar, killing 10 and wounding six. The remainder of the company arrived on the scene in time to prevent further slaughter and routed the natives, killing over 100 of them. It is believed that the Filipinos retired only for reinforcements.

As soon as the news was received at Catbalogan two gunboats were dispatched, General Smith going in person to the scene.

Flake Warren, the first man to take the oath of allegiance required under the recent act of Philippine commission, has been closely identified with Sixto Lopez. Many treasonable and inflammatory proclamations were found in his baggage. Regarding these he said he held only one copy of each, having retained these as souvenirs. It is known that he was one of the members of the junta in Hongkong. He at first objected taking the oath, saying he was a loyal citizen, but he signed it when notified that on no other condition would be allowed to land. Some of his fellow passengers told Civil Governor Taft that Warren and Lopez shook hands and retired for consultation upon hearing of President McKinley's assassination. Governor Taft considers the action of the commission in requiring all suspects to swear allegiance is justified.

Dismay at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 18.—War department officials were somewhat dismayed at the press report of the new setback on the island of Samar. They have confirmation from official sources of the report. The Ninth Infantry, is the organization that was engaged at Balangig. Inspection of the dispositions made of the troops on the island of Samar shows that before the Balangig fight there were no less than 36 separate posts. These were so disposed that supplies could be conveyed to the troops by water. General Hughes has left Samar and gone to the island of Cebu to recuperate, which accounts for the assumption of the command on Samar by General Smith. General Hughes was worn out and suffering from the effects of a severe fall received while chasing insurgents in the mountains of Samar.

Report Confirmed.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The war department has received from General Chaffee confirmation of the report of the disaster on Samar Island. The troops engaged were 46 men of Company E, Ninth regiment, under First Lieutenant George W. Wallace, our loss 10 killed, 6 wounded, names not given; 81 natives left dead on field.

Golden's Testimony

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 18.—When court convened Friday Judge Morton moved to suspend night sessions. The prisoner, Caleb Powers, made affidavit that he was physically disabled. He affirmed also that he had no time to confer with his attorneys. Judge Cantrell reserved decision. Judge Sims resumed cross-examination of Wharton Golden, one of the alleged conspirators. Golden testified he was in a conspiracy to murder Goebel and that he had told Jim Horan that he would give $500 to any man who killed Goebel. When Goebel was shot, Golden said he remarked: "It's a d—d good thing." Golden denied having told Rev. John Stamper, his brother-in-law, that Campbell would give him $5,000 for his testimony, and $2,500 for each conviction and that he and W. H. Culton, together, would "convict every one of them." He denied telling Owens Harkleade and others that Powers was innocent. Miss Sunfer, on whom Powers called frequently, testified as to his letters.

Boer Embassy at White House.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Colonel James R. O'Berne of New York, special representative of the Boer government in this country, was one of the president's callers Friday, but did not speak to him about the Boer situation. He will seek, however, to go over the situation informally with the secretary of state in hope that some steps may be taken on the part of the United States, either by a tender of good offices, or by an expression of a desire that hostilities cease, to bring about a settlement of the war in South Africa. General O'Berne says his latest advices indicate that the Boers may be able to secure Delagoa Bay and make it a base of operations.

ALASKAN EXPLORERS.

Return of Three Parties That Braved Rigors of the North.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—After touring thousands of miles through Alaskan waters, facing dangers of every description, three parties of men sent to the north last spring by the geological survey, returned on the steamship St. Paul. A majority of the members of the party will proceed at once to Washington where data and information secured on the trip will be embodied in government statistics, maps and reports.

The three parties operated different sections of Alaska. One, led by J. G. Gardner and A. J. Collier, surveyed the unknown country north of Nome. A second, headed by W. J. Peters, made a complete investigation of the district lying between the Koyukuk river and the Arctic coast at Point Barrow. The third party operated in the interior bounded by the Little Koyukuk, Dall, Old Man and Kobuck rivers. A fourth party captained by A. H. Brooks worked in southwestern Alaska and has not returned.

At times the exploring parties were as much isolated from civilization as was Explorer Stanley in the interior of darkest Africa. For months no white men outside the members of the parties were seen and they were surrounded by thousands of miles of dreary stretches of uninhabited country. The party led by T. G. Gardner and A. J. Collier secured accurate geological data of the country north of Nome. Peters' party reached Koyukuk river in the spring, explored the treacherous river and headed for the shores of the Arctic north. The trip was a continual round of hardships and exposures. The supplies and instruments were carried on the back of the men. The Mendenhall party lost all its supplies by the overturning of the boats in the rapids on Old Man river, but succeeded in reaching Burgeman nearly starved.

CAUGHT BY A CAVE-IN.

Tons of Rock Fell In New York Tunnel With Fatal Results.

New York, Oct. 18.—In the rapid transit tunnel at One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street and Broadway, 50 tons of rock caved in, carrying death to several men at work far below the surface in the burrow. Among the dead are Peter O'Hara, Daniel Kelliher, Luigi Dahlse and Patrick Madden, foreman.

Madden was found pinned down by tons of broken rock, only the feet being clear of the mass of debris. Many of the workmen were imprisoned in a small chamber of the excavation, and rescuers at once began digging toward the point where they were entombed, 600 feet south of the great shaft, at the intersection of One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street and Broadway, and 110 feet underground.

The contractors, McCabe Brothers, are unable to explain the disaster. They said that the side of the tunnel that collapsed seemed on inspection to have consisted of solid rock and to have been very firm. The cave-in did not extend to the surface.

To Investigate Tilley's Conduct.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—The transport Solace sailed for Pago-Pago, Samoa. Among her passengers was Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, Captains Cooper, Glass, Thomas, Merrick, Reller, Harrington, and Captain Myer, United States marine corps. These are to form a court that will try Captain B. F. Tilley, governor of Tutuila, on charges preferred by the London missionary society, if it is found they have sufficient foundation in fact to justify such a procedure. The battleship Wisconsin with Rear Admiral Casey aboard is now said to be on her way to Samoa and the cruiser Philadelphia will go to Panama to relieve the Iowa, that the Iowa may go to Pago-Pago for the investigation.

Seed Distribution.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The department of agriculture has completed plans for the annual seed distribution throughout the country. Despite the fact that the usual amount of seeds is to be sent out this winter, the preliminary work is advanced much further than in past years. There will be 37,000,000 packets of seed distributed, comprising both vegetables and flowers. The department will begin sending out the seeds about Dec. 1, and most of them will be furnished through senators and representatives.

Cincinnati, Oct. 18.—While the last four of the night crew on the new water works tunnel east of this city were being hauled up to the surface, the shaft broke and the cage fell over 100 feet, seriously injuring John Hanley, Jacob C. Coleman, B. F. Squires and James Connor.

Stabbed His Uncle.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Nathaniel Tate, a farmer, was fatally stabbed by his nephew, John Tate, near Kingsport. It is stated the elder Tate accused the young man of stealing and that the young man stabbed him.

WANT BULLER GAGGED

His Friends Fear He Will Overwork His Vocal Organs.

BOOKED FOR A SPEECH NEXT WEEK.

Bradrick Had a Long Talk With the King But Holds His Tongue Awaiting Buller's Further Outbursts—News From Abroad.

London, Oct. 18.—General Buller's friends, after being uneasy over Mr. Brodrick's protracted conference with the king, are now thrown into a panic by a report that the general will attend a house luncheon at Exeter next week and make another speech. They cannot forecast how much additional mischief he may do by his oratory, and they are hoping that either the court or the war office will issue an order of some kind against talking.

Mr. Brodrick keeps his own counsel respecting the Buller affair, but naval officers, taking the Cobra court martial as an illustration, point the moral that the discipline is maintained rigorously in their branch of the service and that truth is not suppressed after disaster, even if the admiralty itself be struck. There are no military inquiries after disasters in the field, even when evidence of structural weakness in generalship, in staff work and in war office methods generally is more direct and positive than was the proof that the torpedo boat destroyers built or purchased by the admiralty were unseaworthy and liable to sudden collapse.

England's Tobacco War.

London, Oct. 18.—The tobacco war has already commenced, the American combinations having notified retailers of a large reduction in the price of cigars. The struggle between the Titans of British and American trade may be very severe and prolonged. The object of the Americans is to capture the British tobacco markets. The combination which the British manufacturers have established includes 13 leading manufacturers whose united capital is £5,000,000. They control about one-quarter of the output of the tobacco in England, comprising nearly all the best known brands. So far the attack has been directed on penny packets of cigars.

Globe Fears Trouble.

London, Oct. 18.—The Globe says it fears the safety of Miss Ellen M. Stone is seriously compromised by the attitude of Consul General Dickinson in refusing to pay the ransom and in demanding that Bulgaria arrest the leaders of the Macedonian committee as the real author of the missionary's abduction. The paper says the situation contains all the features of a grave international complication and threatens to assume importance far beyond the personality of any individual missionary.

Duke of Norfolk to Marry.

London, Oct. 18.—It is announced that the Duke of Norfolk is going to marry Lady Alice Fitzwilliam, who recently became a Catholic. Lady Alice Mary Fitzwilliam is a daughter of Earl Fitzwilliam. She was born in 1849. The Duke of Norfolk was born in 1847. He married in 1877, Lady Flora Abney-Hastings, who died in 1887. He has one son living, the Earl of Arundel and Surrey, who was born in 1879.

Mexico's Minister to England.

City of Mexico, Oct. 18.—The president has nominated as minister extraordinary to the British court Alfonso Lancaster Jones, who is a descendant of a Welsh family and familiar with the English language. Minister Jones is a lawyer of distinction, a professor of international law, and a close personal friend of the president.

More Britons Bite the Dust.

Cape Town, Oct. 18.—Captain Hellew and four other British were killed in a fight with Boers at Twenty-four Streams, near Piquetburg. Several others were wounded. Boers have taken to shifting camps at night to avoid surprise by British forces, which have recently had several long night marches in vain.

Accomplice of Bresci.

London, Oct. 18.—A dispatch received here from Rome says that Salvatore Quintavelli, the anarchist who returned from the United States with Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, has been committed to prison by the court at Porto Ferrajo, island of Elba, on the charge of being an accomplice of Bresci.

Pair of Swashbucklers.

Milan, Oct. 18.—A remarkable duel with sabers took place near Leghorn between Lieutenant Reodivera of the artillery and Signor Ferrini. They fought 72 rounds, and although actually slashing and thrusting at one another an hour and 40 minutes, both escaped with slight cuts.

IKE HOPKINS is the name another one of those "witnesses" for the prosecution in the Powers case gives. Ike tells the usual blood-curdling story implicating Taylor, Powers, Howard and Youtsey and seems to perform to Campbell's entire satisfaction. It is unfortunate, however, for the prosecution that Col. Owens, of the defense, happened to know Hopkins' record and forced him to admit that he had been not only arrested for murder, malicious shooting and swindling the Government, but had "gone over" the testimony with Tom Campbell. It is not known whether Hopkins had been arrested for any other crime, as the catalogue of crime contains one or two other minor offenses, but the instance will be sufficient to emphasize the class of witnesses with which the prosecution seeks to work the undoing of Caleb Powers.—Lexington Leader.

And "Ike" is a Republican and is Deputy Sheriff in the strong Republican county of Bell. Notwithstanding all the crimes charged against him, the Republicans seem to have thought him good enough to receive honors at the hands of their party. But "Ike" has testified against Powers, and now he's "a bad man from Bitter Creek."

A Meeting for Men.

At the meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock Prof. Fairhurst, of Kentucky University, is expected to deliver a short address. All men are cordially invited to hear him. Special music for the occasion.

The Kentucky Synod of the Presbyterian Church, in session in Hopkinton, discussed plans for the founding of a college in this State for the higher education of women. The next meeting of the synod will be held in Lexington. There were three nominations for the position of Secretary of the synodical evangelical work in the State. The Rev. L. O. Spencer, of Henderson, was elected. Mr. Spencer is the present Recording Clerk of the synod. The position pays $1,500 a year and expenses.

Our Merchandise Bulletin!

This sale was not started by accident. It didn't come by "a streak of luck." The necessities of an estate settlement demanded it. Careful planning, judicious buying, courage to sacrifice profits (as the better part of valor for us, as well as for you) determined its success. And success sometimes brings inconvenience. It has so rushed us we could not always wait upon you with the promptness you desired—and deserved. Last week we strengthened our sales force therefore promise quicker attention in future. Another inconvenience of our very busy days. Our ad remained unchanged too long for sustained interest. Hereafter better arrangements in this respect will prevent a repetition. And now to price facts.

KENTUCKY MASONS.

Grand Lodge and Directors of Widows' and Orphans' Home Clash Over the Question of a Loan of $200,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—The Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky adjourned today after one of the most interesting and liveliest closing sessions in its history. The Grand Lodge has passed a resolution indorsing a proposition of the Building Committee to erect a new Masonic Temple at a cost of $200,000 on a lot on Chestnut street, near Fourth, opposite the United States Custom House.

This lot had been bought some time ago from the Polytechnic Society, and it was resolved to apply to the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home for the loan of the sum needed to complete the new building, this loan to be secured by an issue of first mortgage bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent. To-day the directors of the Home came into the assembly room of the Grand Lodge in a body and submitted, through their President, Mr. T. L. Jefferson, a long communication declining to grant the loan.

The directors stated that they had taken the opinion of experts upon the probability of the annual rental value of the temple to be erected, and had come to the conclusion that the building could not reasonably be expected to earn a net rental sufficient to pay 4 per cent. interest on $200,000.

If the loan should be made the interest charge would rest heavily on the Grand Lodge, and might result in serious damage to the home, as the lodge might, by necessity be forced to withdraw the existing annual contributions by the subordinate lodges to the support of the home. The reading of the communication was followed by a lively discussion and the passage of a resolution intended as a retaliatory measure. It was resolved that the Grand Lodge learned with surprise of the refusal of the directors of the home to lend $200,000 for a new temple, though nearly all the funds of the Home had been originally derived from the Grand Lodge. The directors were requested to turn over to the Grand Lodge immediately a sum of $93,000 belonging to that body, but which for years has been used for the benefit of the home, and at the same time notified them that the annual assessment of $1 from each Mason for the support of the Home might be withdrawn, and would be withdrawn at once if the $93,000 was not paid back upon demand.

A moment later another resolution striking at the Home Board was presented by Past Grand Master Arnett. The resolution was framed so as to change the present manner of electing directors of the Home Board, and providing that henceforth the Grand Lodge would assume the election of the directory through the Grand Master. The resolution was adopted.

The Home Board verbally offered a loan of $150,000, but it was not accepted, as it would be impossible to raise the remaining $50,000 by a second mortgage bond issue. When the Grand Lodge adjourned sine die the members of the Home Board were farther apart.

The Building Committee will take over the $93,000, and will proceed to borrow $107,000 in bank unless the Home Board can induce the committee to make a different arrangement. The Grand Lodge will, of course, not withdraw its support from the Home, but the annual per capita contribution of $1 will be diverted from the Home into the building fund in order to take up the mortgage bonds as they may fall due.

The situation is generally regretted by Masons.

John Manuel, of Dover, raised from 400 to 600 bushels of sweet potatoes this year.

The Yellow Ribbon fair at Aberdeen closed Friday, with a large crowd in attendance.

The late Sanford Gray, of Fleming County, was an uncle of Mr. Lee B. Gray of this city, and not his father as first stated.

Mr. Charles Slack, who has been in the employ of Mr. P. H. Blythe, the barber, several years, left yesterday afternoon to accept a position in the Washington Hotel barber shop at Portsmouth. His many friends wish him success in his new home.

A remarkable run was made on the Chesapeake and Ohio the other night, east of Charleston, Va., engine No. 76, pulling the train of ten cars carrying the Jefferson Club of St. Louis, covering thirteen miles in ten and one-half minutes. Five miles of the run was made at an average speed of over 100 miles an hour.

All Confederate veterans, within reach of this paper—whether in Mason or adjoining counties—desiring the bestowal of the Cross of Honor will be so kind as to communicate such fact with Mrs. Thomas J. Chenoweth, President Dr. Basil C. Duke Chapter, U. D. C., who can supply them with all necessary papers for procuring the same. Write as soon as possible, as the ladies of the above chapter have set January 19th—General Lee's birthday—as the date for a reception when these crosses shall be presented.

Elder T. P. Degman has just closed a very successful revival at Bethany, his home church. The meeting lasted twelve days and resulted in twenty-four additions to the membership. Quite a number of those converted were heads of families, yet two of the number were bright little girls. Almost the entire community assisted in the services, and the Elder did some very fine preaching. A Scripture quotation service of fifteen minutes was held just before preaching every evening, and nearly every one present took part. This is Elder Degman's seventeenth protracted meeting with this church, and winds up a pastorate of twenty-six years, nearly continuously. The members want him another year.

Says the Newport correspondent of the Enquirer: "Mrs. Dr. Heflin invented a new system of sending in fire alarms Thursday when she took a brick and threw it through the windows of the One's house on East Fourth street to tell the firemen that her home was burning up. Burning soot had dropped down and ignited the wall paper covering the hole in the chimney breast, and this in turn set fire to a picture on the wall. The blaze was easily extinguished with a chemical. Mrs. Heflin lives directly in the rear of the engine house, and when the firemen ran out to see 'who throw'd dat brick,' she informed them 'what was doing.' Mrs. Heflin says that her system has the electric non-interfering alarm patent beat a block."

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's.

FOREFATHERS' DAY.

Program to be Observed at the Washington Christian Church Sunday Afternoon.

The following program has been arranged for the Forefathers' Day exercise to be given by the Endeavor Society at the Washington Christian Church to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock:

Hymn.
Scripture, Psalm 78, 1 to 11.
Prayer by the pastor.
Hymn.
"Thomas Campbell," by Mrs. E. Downing.
"Personal Reminiscences of Walter Scott," by Mrs. James Marshall.
Solo—"When the Curtains Are Lifted," Miss V. Buckingham.
"Barton W. Stone," by Mrs. Tucker.
Solo—"The Story That Never Grows Old," Mrs. Ben Marshall.
"Alexander Campbell," by Miss V. Buckingham.
Collection.
Hymn.
Benediction.

Must Know Something.

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat: "Dr. J. P. Huff was brought in Monday by Sheriff Scott on an attachment from the Scott Circuit Court to testify for the defense in the Caleb Powers case. He does not seem anxious to get on the witness stand to tell what he knows. He was taken there before, but was not put on the stand."

Stepped Into Live Coals.

"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for thirty years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infallible for burns, scalds, cuts, sores, bruises and piles. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son. 25c.

Mrs. Lucy R. Beckett, aged seventy-nine, died at her home near Flemingsburg.

Little Carroll Mathews, who has been ill with fever the past week at Flemingsburg, is recovering.

Albert Shriver, who has been employed at the pulley works, has gone to Claude, Texas, to work on a ranch.

Miss V. Buckingham—ladies' tailoring and French dressmaking. Ball and wedding dresses. No. 116 Sutton street.

Elder R. E. Moss, the new minister of the Christian Church, is engaged in a protracted meeting at Kirksville, Ky.

If you want strictly pure imported olive oil in original packages go to Chenoweth's drug store. Price 35c. to $1.25.

The administrators of John W. Grigson, deceased, will offer at public sale Saturday, October 20th, 1901, a fine farm, containing 107½ acres, splendidly located.

You want to be right up in G if you are an Elk, and get one of those handsome pins and charms on sale at Ballenger's. Great variety, ranging from $1 to $80.

The protracted meeting which was to begin in the Germantown Christian Church Sunday, Oct. 20th, has been postponed, because Dr. Buckner, of Harrodsburg, can not be present at that time.

What's Your Face Worth?

Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a hollow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin, all signs of liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give clear skin, rosy cheeks, rich complexion. Only 25 cents at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Members to be Chosen by Viva Voce Vote and Not by Secret Ballot—Indications of a Lively Contest.

Present indications point to some lively contests at the approaching election of members of the Board of Education. One member is to be elected from each of the wards except the Second and Sixth and two from these two wards.

The claim is advanced by some that a complete new Board should be elected, as the present members were elected by secret ballot, when the law requires them to be chosen by viva voce vote.

In construing the laws to the method of voting for members of the Board, the Court of Appeals says:

This view of the question requires the election to be held by the viva voce system. In express terms, the election is to be at the November election, the regular officers of which must provide therefor, and at which the qualified voters of the city may participate. We regard it immaterial that the trustees are denominated the Board of Education.

They perform the duties of trustees and the election is held in "a common school district" under the express provisions of Section 36 6, Kentucky Statutes.

The court also says:

We are in doubt as to the meaning of the clause "qualified voters of the city," but in view of the general law conferring the right of suffrage on widows, &c., in such elections we are inclined to hold the words to mean those of the city who are qualified to vote under the general school law.

Under the general school law "any widow having a child between six and twenty years of age, and any widow or spinster having a ward between the ages of six and twenty years may also vote at election of trustees."

A special meeting of the Board was called for last evening to suggest to the four holdover members, who were chosen by secret ballot, that they offer for election by viva voce vote at the approaching election, but a quorum was not present and no action was taken.

Special Services at the M. E. Church To-morrow.

Sunday school rally day to which all who ever did attend the Sabbath school and all who now belong are invited to come and take part in the services at 9:15 a. m. At 10:30 the pastor will preach to the Knights of the Golden Eagle who will attend in a body. At 7 p. m. the pastor will preach a harvest home sermon. The church will be beautifully decorated with autumn leaves as well as all kinds of fruits and vegetables. All made welcome.

Gretna Green Lodge No. 99, K. of P., of Aberdeen, will hold a McKinley memorial service at the Baptist Church, that place, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30. Prof. E. Reganstone will deliver an address. Mr. Boyd Muse and Miss Henrietta Davis will assist in the singing. Mayeville folks and all others cordially invited.

Mr. W. G. Heiser has purchased an auto-bicycle, and was out Friday testing it on the streets. The power is furnished by a small gasoline motor, which can drive it at great speed.

Lonely Homes

A home is never complete without children. Yet many homes are childless. Many wives are desolate for the lack of a child to love. Their lives are aimless—void of the high motives of motherhood. While barrenness is causing incalculable sadness and sorrow, it exists in most cases on account of some little female trouble, which Wine of Cardui would speedily set right. This pure Wine regulates the disordered female organs by building up the worn out nerves and regulating the menstrual flow. It restores the fallen womb to its proper place. By strengthening the generative organs, it makes pregnancy possible where barrenness exists. You can depend on

WINE of CARDUI

Suffering women all over the land have been depending on it for seventy-five years. No more convincing proof can be given than the testimony of Mrs. Benson, who is only one of thousands of women to whom Wine of Cardui has brought a permanent cure. Many cases of miscarriage—that trouble which robs mothers of their hopes—have been avoided by timely use of the Wine. You are asked to try Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, its companion medicine. Nine out of ten cases of female trouble, barrenness included, yield to them. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Vandervoort, Ark., April 2, 1900.

Last May I had a miscarriage, which was followed by flooding. I read your Almanac and my husband got me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and it stopped my flooding and restored my fallen womb to its place. Now I am cured after taking three bottles and have another to take which I got this morning. I am expecting to become a mother and Wine of Cardui will be my doctor.

They always do the same;
It is a little way they have,
A sort of green goods game.
The hazy twilight brings a moon
That takes up half the sky
And makes a hungry fellow think
Of future pumpkin pie.

The elder press gets busy now;
It does not stop nor lag,
And country folks again debate,
"Does Cider Cause a Jag?"
The price of coal goes up a notch;
And price of ice comes down;
The folks who spend their coin abroad
Are hustling now in town.

And, now, the rah-rah boy permits
His hair to grow quite long
And bursts the air with college yells
Or tunes his college song.

A MAYSVILLE LADY

Offers Some Valuable Advice—Every Reader Interested.

Perhaps the reader is a "Doubting Thomas," for Maysville is full of them. Doubt, as a rule, leads to investigation and, as "Doubting Thomas" will not accept as facts a long statement giving particulars of some incredible cure on the other side of the continent, he is asked to investigate the following testimony of a local citizen:

Mrs. J. C. Sweet, of 713 East Second street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills ended pain in my back which had annoyed me for a considerable time. My mother, Mrs. A. F. Sweet, also used this remedy and values it highly. Mr. Sweet got Doan's Kidney Pills for me at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. We are only too pleased to recommend a preparation which has proved so reliable and effective as did Doan's Kidney Pills."
